TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 3, 1890.

TO Mail Subscribers.

The figures on the printed address indicate the time to which your paper has been paid. Subscribers will please send their labels as by doing so they will be able to receive their paper without delay, and the same will be sent to them at once.

To the Public.

The Sentinel, having decided the circulation in this city, and more than 100,000 copies of any other paper here, readers it for the cheapest and rapidly increasing in circulation for all classes of readers.

Later from California and Oregon.

The Overland Mail, with San Francisco dates to the 28th of June, reached Springfield, Missouri, on Friday last, and being the thunder storm that night, the news did not reach here. We give a few of the leading items:

Last night General Clark received a dispatch from Capt. Stewart, commanding the regular force in Carson Valley, stating that the hostile Indians had probably had beyond the reach of our troops.

The contribution from the people of San Francisco to support the Col. Hayes volunteers, reached $4,000.

A full list of persons killed by the Indians in the Carson Valley region, since they have been hostile, has been published, amounting to over eighty men.

Judge Terry, who is under indictment for killing Senator Broderick in a duel, has applied for a change of venue from the district court to the federal court, claiming that he cannot obtain a fair trial in San Francisco.

John H. P. Hays, late United States Senator under Executive appointment, died at Marysville on the 28th inst. of congestive colic, the effect of indigestion contracted on the journey while returning from Washington.

The election in Oregon for Representative in Congress and Members of the Legislature, came off on the 28th ult. Returns had been received, by telegraph, from the two southern counties, as follows:

Jackman county gave Smith (Dem.) for Congress, 539; Logan, (Rep.) 463.

The entire Democratic legislative ticket was elected.

Josephine county is reported: Shaw, 299; Logan, 37.

Logan's vote in Jackson county shows a gain of 100 on his vote of last year; when he defeated in the State by only sixteen votes.

These returns are encouraging to the Republicans, and indicate a possibility that the next year the Democratic ticket will in August elect two Republican Senators.

Breakthrough in Wisconsin.

The Madison Argus, a Democratic organ, long the central organ of our Wisconsin Democracy, runs up, in its issue of yesterday, the Democratic flag, and says:

In taking this course, we are violating no Democratic principle. We are supporting the national candidate. The Madison Argus is a Democratic paper, and it is its duty to support the Democratic ticket.

THE CITY.

Where Shall the Boys Swim?

Dear Sentinel:—I notice a reply in your paper of the 28th inst. to a notice in the lake, and when you go to find a place where he can enjoy bathing without being nabbed by the Police. Please answer this through your paper for the benefit of the boys.

"The boys" should go up to the dam, where benevolent and money-loving enterprises have prepared a place for them to "go boys" to have some regard for the feelings of those people who live along the lake shores. Boys are not always young Apollons or Cupids when their breeches are off, and a taste for the fine arts has not yet been sufficiently cultivated—even if the boys were such an Adonis—to permit so much stultifying running loose under the eyes of the public.
